Circle of light

Many of us shun the Big Light, preferring the mellow effect of a few lamps. But what if your central pendant could give that soft glow we all love so much? The Lift is a cluster of illuminated discs, suspended from slender metal stems, that impart a gentle light. The discs can be rotated 180 degrees, allowing infinite adjustments to achieve the desired ambience. Mood lighting at its best. From approx £705. candadesign.it

BLOOMIN' GREAT

Sanderson Design has delved into its archives to release a stunning range of textiles inspired by heritage designs. Top of our list is this short-pile velvet cushion, which comes in two colourways. With its Morris-influenced floral motif and black-fringed edges, it'll appeal to maximalists with bohemian leanings. Best enjoyed on a chaise longue. £125. ## LINE DANCE

If the cold weather's got you conducting a rug audit, take a look at My Furniture's new hand-tufted range. The 100% wool designs are more affordable than the average hand-tufted rug, but have a luxe appearance and soft pile that belies the price. Expect bold geometric patterns in a neutral palette. £289.99 (160 x 230cm). my-furniture.com

Dream weaver

A blend of wool and linen might sound a bit unusual, but the new Fresco and Cascade fabrics from Johnstons of Elgin show the two go together perfectly. They comprise 68% lambswool and 32% linen, giving a super-soft texture with a cool edge that lends itself well to upholstery and drapery. The fabrics come in a range of colours and weaves, including herringbone and twill. Draperies: Fresco wool linen in Cove. £122 per m. johnstonsofeligin.com

HUNG UP ON YOU

This year marks the 15th anniversary of a design classic: Edward Barber and Jay Osgerby's Birds on a Wire hanging rail. Inspired by the silhouette of birds perched daintily on a telephone line, the modular design comes in panels of three or five hooks. It's made from brushed aluminium and can be purchased in its natural state or in a white, black or orange finish.

From £162. maaisdesign.com

On the spot

Bobbin furniture is enjoying a bit of a revival, its ornamental beaded-style legs offering a pleasing antidote to stark minimalism. Dig it? East Lothian's Clock House Furniture has a new collection dedicated entirely to this style of furniture, which dates from the 17th century but looks fresh when paired with modern fabrics. We hear everyone was going dotty for it at Decorex. From £1,425. clockhouse-furniture.co.uk

A WALLFLOWER

Die-hard paint lovers: prepare to switch allegiance to wallpaper. Dado Atelier is a new digital-first brand that'll have you rethinking every wall in the house. Partnering with fine artists and fashion creatives, its designs are super-stylish and printed to order using environmentally friendly inks on high-grade, non-woven paper. £175 per 3m roll. ## Cube wars

Admit it. Your Billy bookcase has done its time and is in dire need of an upgrade. If that sounds familiar, cast your eyes over the Move sectional cabinet system. The lacquered steel cubes can be stacked in various configurations and colour combinations. They're available as open shelves but also come with doors. From approx £336.
